

I would like the FCC to know how much we enjoy not getting telemarketing calls to our home. The few that we get are still very annoying because these people do not take no for an answer. If this law that Indiana has is for telephone privacy is revoked it would be a great disappointment and I will not do business at the banks that are promoting this. Thank you for letting me write my concern over the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law and how IT SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO CONTINUE !!